TO GIVE A NEW DEFINITION TO PVC

DuPont Elvaloy

Clean motion graphics for a product introduction video.

Client
DuPont

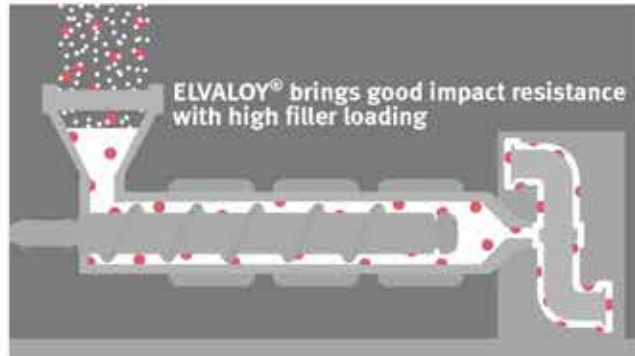

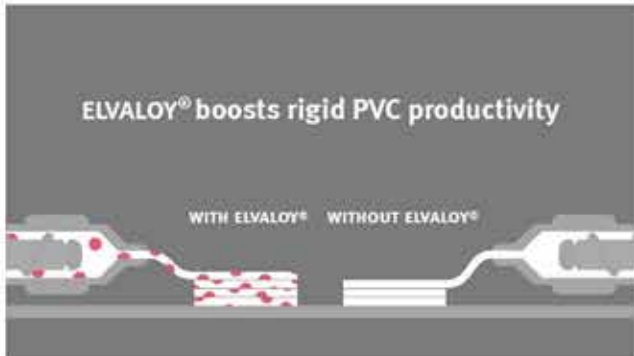

Scope

- Data and information analysis
- Story board creation
- Custom illustration and data visualisation
- Motion graphics video animation

Project Background

We made an introduction video for DuPont's Elvaloy material that illustrates the advantages and variety of options of the product. Clean animation makes the infographics more eye-catching while keeping the material easy to digest, something especially important in an exhibition setting.
